THE MATCHUPS

The Concordia-St. Paul women's basketball team (7-15, 4-12 NSIC) are preparing for a pair of road games this weekend when they travel to St. Cloud State (12-7, 9-6 NSIC) to take on the Huskies on Friday, February 2nd at 6 p.m. The following day the Bears will face Minnesota Duluth (11-8, 8-7 NSIC) at 4 p.m.

LAST TIME OUT

The Bears are coming off a busy week, going 2-1 with wins against Minnesota State and Bemidji State and a loss against Minnesota Crookston.

CSP had their best shooting performance on Tuesday against MSU, connecting on 42.9% of their shots from the field. Anna Schmitt was the leading scorer in the game, finishing with 23 points, while also compiling a season best nine rebounds. Hanna Vidlund and Lindsay Dorr also finished in double digits for the Bears, with 16 and 13 points, respectively.

The game was a close one throughout, featuring seven ties and nine lead changes. The Bears trailed by nine in the fourth quarter but went on a 9-0 run, capped off by an Ellie Gess three, to tie the game. Minnesota State took the lead once again and led by three with a minute to play. This is when Schmitt took over, first scoring a three to tie it and then making a last-second, off-balance layup to lift the Bears to a 74-72 win.

Against Bemidji State the Bears got off to a slow start, allowing the Beavers to score the first seven points of the game and were trailing by 12 with 2:40 left in the first quarter. CSP then picked up their intensity and went on a 10-2 run to end the quarter, only trailing by four heading into the second quarter. The Bears outscored the Beavers 21-12 in the second quarter to lead by five at halftime. BSU got the game within one with five minutes left in the third quarter, but the Bears held strong, not giving up the lead, going on an 11-0 run to go up by 12. Concordia held on to the double digit lead for the majority of the fourth quarter, going on to win 63-53.

Schmitt and Gess finished in double figures to lead the Bears, but Concordia's bench played a crucial role in the contest, as Haydn Becker, Lexi Lee, and Ayla Lemke each came off the bench and scored nine points apiece, outscoring BSU's bench 27-19.

The following day the Bears were defeated by Minnesota Crookston 75-60. Schmitt was Concordia's leading scorer with 15 points, followed by Lee with a career-high ten. Kayla Miller and Becker were the team's top rebounders, as both ended with career-highs with 11 rebounds.

Turnovers and second chance points were costly in the game for Bears. The Eagles forced twenty turnovers in the contest, which resulted in 20 points for them. Crookston also secured 14 offensive rebounds that led to 21 second chance points. Despite these numbers, the Bears led by one at halftime and were within four with six minutes to play in the fourth quarter, before the Eagles took over, going on to win by 15.

ST. CLOUD STATE SERIES HISTORY

The Bears own a 15-16 record against St. Cloud State, but have won nine out of 15 conference contests against the Huskies. CSP has been especially successful against St. Cloud in recent years, winning six of their last seven matchups, including three wins on the road. When playing in St. Cloud, the Bears are an even 6-6 and their last loss against the Huskies was on January 3rd, 2016 when playing in St. Cloud.

LAST MEETING VS SCSU

In last year's matchup the Bears were on the winning end of an 88-75 decision. The Bears were incredibly efficient in the win, shooting 58.8% (30-51) from the floor, 60.0% (12-20) from three, and 76.2% (16-21) from the line. The offense was also an unselfish one, as the team tallied 26 assists throughout the contest, as Mishayla Jones dished out 14 herself, which is tied for the third most in any Concordia game. Four Golden Bears finished with double digit points in the contest, with Anna Schmitt and Caitlyn Russell leading the way with 24 and 21 points, respectively. Russell shot especially well, connecting on nine of 11 from the field (81.8%), Jones and Brianna Miller were the last two to end in double figures, combining for 26 points.

The Bears got off to a good start in the contest, scoring the first eight points of the game. Within four minutes CSP was up by 11, and despite giving up the last five points in the quarter, still led by eight after the first ten minutes of play. The Bulldogs scored the first four points of the second quarter to get the game within four, but the Bears regained a double digit lead with four minutes left in the half and led 46-32 at the break. Concordia held onto their double digit lead throughout the majority of the second half, but midway through the fourth quarter the Huskies crept back in and with a little over four minutes left it was a five point game. The Bears played solid defense for the rest of the game and

Last 30-point game: Anna Schmitt, 37 vs. Southwest Minnesota State (2017-2018)

Amanda Johnson enters her second full season after officially being named the program's ninth head basketball coach in April, 2016 following a successful stint as interim head coach in the second half of the 2015-16 season.

One of the top post players in Concordia basketball history, Johnson assumed the interim head coach position during winter break of the 2015-16 season and led the program to a 9-10 record highlighted by a 9-6 finish that included an NSIC Sanford Health Tournament first round victory.

In her first full season in 2016-17, Johnson led the team to a fifth place finish in the NSIC and a third place finish in the South Division as the team compiled a record of 19-10 (15-7 NSIC) on the season.

She's completed her fifth year coaching in the program, spending the first two as a graduate assistant before a promotion to the top assistant position on staff for a year and a half.

Johnson returned to the Golden Bears in 2012-13 after a strong stint as a professional player in Australia. She returned to pursue a master's degree in sport management and initially was tabbed with working with the post players. As a graduate assistant, the Golden Bears captured two NSIC Championships and an NCAA Central Region Championship with a trip to the Elite Eight during her first two years on staff.

Concordia Playing Career

The two-time All-Region performer led the Golden Bears to back-to-back NSIC regular season and tournament championships and was two-time NSIC Player of the Year in the process. Johnson set the school single-season scoring record with 551 points as a junior in 2006-07 as she led the Golden Bears to the NCAA Central Region Championship game and the school's second Sweet 16 run.

She averaged 16.8 points and 8.6 rebounds while shooting 52.4% from the floor and finished as Concordia's seventh all-time leading scorer despite playing three years for the Golden Bears (2005-08).

She had a 30-point, 20-rebound performance in the 2006-07 region title game. Her 726 career rebounds rank third in Concordia's Division II-era (1999-present). She also scored 1,426 career points in 94 games, adding 112 steals and 81 blocked shots.

The St. Croix Lutheran High School graduate was a business and marketing major at Concordia as an undergraduate. She began her college career at Division I Winthrop University, playing in 27 games with three starts with a Big South Freshman of the Week award.

Coaching Beginning

Johnson brings prior coaching experience to the Golden Bear huddle, working as an assistant coach at New Life Academy.

Professional Playing Career

After her Concordia playing career came to a close, Johnson pursued professional basketball in Australia, playing for the Ringwood Hawks where she was a 2010 Big V League MVP and helped the Hawks to a Victoria State Championship. She posted averages of 15.6 points and 14.3 rebounds most recently.

Amanda is married to men's basketball assistant coach Eric Johnson. They currently reside in Hudson, Wis with their son, Jase.

Assistant Coach notes:

Ashley Ellis-Milan enters her fourth season at Concordia as the program's top assistant in the 2017-18 season after spending her first two years as a graduate assistant. She's no stranger to campus as a St. Paul Central High School graduate before continuing her playing career just a few miles away at the University of Minnesota.

After her career in maroon and gold, she played professionally in Germany, Greece and a stint with the Minnesota Lynx. Ashley graduated from Minnesota with a degree in education and is pursuing a master's in educational leadership at Concordia.

Sophie Kenney joined the Concordia women's basketball coaching staff as a graduate assistant working with the guards for the 2016-17 season. Kenney was a standout at Augustana University, earning All-NSIC Second Team honors as a senior, also being named to the NSIC All-Tournament Team. She was also a three-time NSIC All-Academic student-athlete at AU where she was a business communications and English double-major.
