THE MATCHUPS

The Concordia-St. Paul men's basketball team hits the road to open 2019 as they travel to University of Mary on Friday and Minot State on Saturday.

LAST TIME OUT

On Sunday, Concordia fell to Minnesota State in the team's final contest before the New Year by a score of 92-60 at Gangelhoff Center.

Minnesota State held CSP to just 39.7% (23-58) from the floor and 16.7% (3-18) from three while also forcing 19 turnovers and committing just six in the win. The Mavericks finished the game at 45.2% (33-73) on the offensive end while also knocking down 43.8% (14-32) from deep in the game.

Bryndan Matthews paced the Golden Bears on the night with his fifth double-double on the season with 17 points and 10 boards as he connected on 7-10 from the floor. Lee Higgins also reached double figures with 10 points to go along with seven rebounds while Isaiah McKay and Cody Carlson each added eight points.

MARY SERIES HISTORY

The Golden Bears take a 13-8 record against the Marauders into this weekend's matchup between the two schools. While Concordia has put up a solid 6-4 record on their home court against U-Mary, they have been even better in Bismarck with seven wins in nine trips there. Heading into a meeting in the NSIC Tournament two seasons ago, CSP had rattled off six straight wins in the series before the Marauders snapped that streak. U-Mary followed up that victory with another before the Golden Bears got back in the win column last season.

LAST MEETING VS MARY

In last season's meeting, CSP did not hold a lead the entire night until four Avan Ward free throws in the final seven seconds gave the Golden Bears a 70-66 comeback win at University of Mary.

CSP trailed from the 18:09 mark of the first half until the 2:13 mark of the second half as they played from behind from nearly start to finish before closing out the game on a 14-2 run to claim the victory. The Golden Bears trailed by as many as 12 on the night, including 11 in the second half, as the team trailed for all but 3:11 in the game.

The duo of Avan Ward and Bryndan Matthews did the heavy lifting on the offensive end for CSP as the pair combined for 46 of the team's 70 points. Ward eclipsed 20+ points for the fourth time in six games as he matched his career best with 27 points. The sophomore hit 9-16 from the floor and 6-6 from the free throw line to go along with four boards and two assists. Matthews scored 17 of his 19 points in the second half as he connected on 9-14 shooting while chipping in seven boards, three steals and two assists on the night.

As a team, the Golden Bears were extremely efficient from the field as they put up their best shooting percentage of the year at 59.6% (28-47) compared to 49.1% (26-53) for the Marauders. Concordia also led the way on the glass with a 28-23 rebounding edge, a 38-26 edge in points in the paint, and an 8-0 edge in second chance points.

ABOUT THE MAURADERS

University of Mary enters 2019 with an even record of 6-6 overall and 3-3 in NSIC play. It's been season filled with ups and downs as the Marauders dropped their first three games before rattling off six wins in seven to move two games above .500. UMary then closed out 2018 with a pair of conference losses.

The Mauraders have been nearly unbeatable on their home court so far this season as they have gone 5-1 in Bismarck with their lone loss at home coming at the hands of St. Cloud State. The team's success away from home has been a different story as they have gone 1-3 on the road and 0-2 at a neutral site. UMary's last two contests of 2018 resulted in road losses as they fell to Northern State 76-59 and Minot State 77-61.

UMary has played at an extremely slow pace so far this season as they currently average 68.2 points as a team while holding opponents to just 65.3. The Marauders' 66.7 points per game in NSIC action ranks dead last in the league while their 71.7 points per game allowed ranked in the top half at sixth. Jaylan White (14.0 PPG), Tom Kubank (11.7 PPG) and Matthew Kreklow (11.3 PPG) register in as the top three scorers for the Marauders as the three account for 54.3% of the team's scoring on the year.

six previous meetings as the Beavers have won five of those six contests. CSP's lone win against Minot State came in St. Paul back in 2014 as the Golden Bears have gone 1-2 on their home court and 0-3 on the road in the series. MiSU has won each of the past four contests since that CSP win.

LAST MEETING VS MiSU

Back on Jan. 13, 2018, the Golden Bears dropped a back-and-forth contest at Minot State by a score of 80-67 to wrap up a four game road trip.

It proved to be a game of runs as the contest featured nine ties and nine lead changes throughout the night. In addition, there were a combined 10 different runs of at least seven points, including three that were double digits.

Concordia cleaned up on the glass with a solid 14-7 edge in offensive boards and a 38-33 edge in rebounds, but they weren't able to turn it into a victory. A big reason for that was a significant shooting discrepancy. Minot State connected on 47.5% (28-59) from the field and a perfect 100.0% (16-16) from the free throw line while CSP finished at 39.7% (25-63) shooting and 73.3% (11-15) from the charity stripe. MiSU also held a 12-4 advantage in points off of turnovers as well as a 17-13 advantage in bench scoring on the night.

It was once again the combination of Avan Ward and Bryndan Matthews that accounted for a large chunk of Concordia's offensive output with 35 of the team's 67 points. Ward led the way with 18 points on 6-14 shooting as he connected on three three-pointers while Matthews chipped in 17 points as well. Ward added three boards and three assists while Matthews contributed eight rebounds.

ABOUT THE BEAVERS

After winning three of their first four games and taking a 5-4 record into league play, Minot State has picked up just one win in six NSIC games so far. The Beavers entered the final game of 2018 still looking for their first conference win and found it with a 77-61 win at home against their travel partner, UMary.

While life on the road has been tough for the Beavers as they have gone 0-5 in road games and 2-2 in neutral site games, Minot State has picked up four wins in six games on their home court. MiSU opened the season with wins in their first three at home before seeing that streak snapped by UMD and SCSU.

Minot State enters the weekend with four players averaging double figures, led by 18.0 per night from David Akibo. Kyle Beisch and Max Cody have added 12.8 points and 12.7 points, respectively, while Dorian Aluyi has chipped in 10.7 per game.

NCAA/NSIC LEADERS

Heading into the weekend, the Golden Bears had several players rank near the top of the NSIC and the nation in different statistical categories.

Bryndan Matthews has been one of the top players in the country early on this season as he ranks fifth in the conference and 43rd in NCAA DII in scoring (20.8) while ranking third in the conference and 43rd in the nation in rebounding (9.0). Matthews also registers in at fifth in the NSIC and 84th in the nation in assists per game (4.7), sixth in the NSIC in offensive rebounds per game (2.5), third in the NSIC and 37th in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.7) and first in the NSIC and 20th in the nation in field goal percentage (62.3%) all in an NSIC-leading 38.8 minutes per game.

In addition, Isaiah McKay ranks near the top in quite a few categories as well. McKay ranks just behind Matthews in scoring (19.8) to rank eighth in the league and rank 58th in the country while ranking fifth in the conference in threes made per game (2.7), 10th in the conference in defensive rebounds per game (5.3) and 11th in the conference in assists per game (3.3).

Hayden Baughman also ranks sixth in the league in threes made per game (2.5) as well as 14th in three-point percentage (44.1%).

CLIMBING THE RANKS

Senior Bryndan Matthews has been a major contributor throughout his four seasons on campus and is climbing the career ranks at Concordia. The Eagan native is up to third in scoring (1,516) and rebounding (689), fourth in rebounds per game (7.0), second in field goals made (559), second in free throws made (337), eighth in assists (240) and ninth in steals (121) in his career at CSP. Matthews sits just 30 points behind Terez VanPelt for second in program history heading into Sunday.

Joey James became the ninth head men's basketball coach at Concordia-St. Paul in April, 2014.

He made an immediate impact for the Golden Bear basketball program, leading the team to an 11-win turnaround and the third-most wins in a single season in program history with a 19-11 overall finish. The team also set a program record for most NSIC wins with a 14-8 conference record in his debut season. The 11-win improvement was a team record and the best improvement in the NSIC in 2014-15.

Prior to joining Concordia's sidelines, James spent a season as interim head coach at the University of South Dakota where he had been an assistant for 11 seasons prior to his interim appointment. James also played for the Coyotes from 1997-99.

In his interim season, James and the Coyotes went 12-18 overall and 6-8 in the Summit League. USD played to a 10-3 record at home in the DakotaDome, had a five-game midseason winning streak and a pair of three game winning streaks (one early, one late).

While James joins Concordia after serving as a Division I head coach at USD, he also has a strong Division II background prior to the Coyotes making the jump. In his first five seasons as a USD assistant, the Coyotes reached the NCAA Division II Tournament. In his 12 total seasons as a USD coach, the program produced a 225-137 (.622) record as James was involved in all aspects of USD basketball. He also helped lead the team to seven-straight 20-plus win along with two conference championships.

The Bellevue, Neb. native averaged 24 points per game as a prep at Bellevue West High School before attending Iowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs. He averaged 15 points as a sophomore and transferred to South Dakota. He averaged eight points as a junior in his first year with the Coyotes, leading the team to a 19-8 season. During James' senior season, South Dakota finished 23-7, won the North Central Conference championship and reached the NCAA Tournament.

James resides in Egan and has a son, Jaylen, and two daughters, Jayci and Jayna.

Assistant Coach notes:

Eric Johnson joined the Concordia men's basketball coaching staff as an assistant in the spring of 2014.

Johnson most recently served as assistant coach for Joey James at South Dakota at the Division I level in 2013-14 in his second stint with the USD program. Previously, he had been a graduate assistant with the Coyotes from 2008-10 under former USD coach Dave Boots.

In between his graduate assistantship and full time role as assistant coach at USD, Johnson spent the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons as an assistant coach at New Mexico Highlands University, formerly of the NCAA's Central Region.

Prior to his start in coaching, Johnson was a standout basketball player at Wayne State College where he was a two-time captain for the Wildcats. He earned his degree in 2008 in speech communications with a concentration of organizational leadership and public relations. He earned his master's at USD in 2010 in athletic administration.

Eric is married to head women's basketball coach Amanda Johnson. They currently reside in Hudson, Wis. with their son, Jase.

Roman Gentry enters his fifth season with the Golden Bears in 2018-19 after joining the Concordia coaching staff prior to the 2014-15 season as a graduate assistant.

He started his coaching career in 2012-13 as an assistant at Rapid City High School, helping the varsity squad reach the South Dakota State Tournament. He then moved on to his alma mater at East High School in Sioux City, Iowa where he was an assistant with the boys basketball team while working at the school.

Gentry played two years at the University of South Dakota from 2008-10, averaging 13.5 points during his junior season as a midseason transfer. As a senior, he was named All-Great West Conference First Team, averaging 17.6 points during league play for the Coyotes.

He began his playing career at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, where he played in 36 games with four starts in his first two seasons before leaving for USD.

Ahmad Newsome enters his first season as a graduate assistant for the Golden Bears in the 2018-19 season.

Prior to joining the coaching staff, Newsome was a point guard for the Golden Bears in the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons. During his CSP career, Newsome was a two-year captain and an NSIC All-Academic selection, averaging 25.1 minutes, 4.9 points, and 2.7 assists per game. Newsome also played two years of basketball at Southwestern Community College.

Newsome is originally from East Lansing, Michigan. He graduated from Concordia in 2018 with a degree in Business Management and is pursuing his Master's degree in Business Administration.
