THE MATHCUP

The Concordia-St. Paul women's basketball team (4-0, 2-0 NSIC) returns home this weekend to host the Augustana Vikings (2-2, 1-1 NSIC) in a pair of conference games at the Gangelhoff Center.

IN THE POLLS

Following Concordia's perfect start to the season, the Golden Bears earned national recognition in the latest D2SIDA Women's Basketball Poll. The Golden Bears just missed the top-25 as their 29 points in the poll gave them the third highest total among teams receiving votes. CSP also earned a spot in the D2SIDA Central Region Poll as they moved into fifth, joining Minnesota Duluth (in second) as one of two NSIC schools in the six-team rankings. This marks the first time Concordia has been ranked in the D2SIDA region poll since late in the 2018-19 season.

LAST TIME OUT

Last weekend, the Golden Bears traveled to Wayne, Neb. to take on the Wayne State Wildcats for their first conference action of the season. Concordia collected a sweep on the weekend, winning by an average of 21.5 points.

In the first game, the Golden Bears dominated both ends of the court for most of the contest. The CSP defense held the Wildcats to shooting just 33.9% from the floor while the offense shot 53.2% in the 96-60 victory.

CSP got contributions from all over the roster on Friday with 11 different players recording points and three reaching double figures.

Leading the Bears was junior guard Meghan DuBois with a career-high 24 points to go along with five rebounds and four assists. Freshman forward Lindsey Becher also continued her hot streak, finishing with her third double-digit performance in as many games with 16 points, four rebounds, and three blocks.

Senior guard Riley Wheatcraft put up another solid performance, ending the game with 14 points on 5-8 shooting from the floor and 3-4 from beyond the arc. Sophomore guard Jady Hanson provided a spark off the bench, contributing nine points to go along with three rebounds and two steals.

Saturday's contest was a much closer affair, but the Bears pulled away late to secure a 93-86 victory and complete the sweep.

The Bears shot the ball well in the game, shooting 32-62 from the floor (51.6%). The Golden Bear defense enjoyed another solid outing, holding Wayne State to just 39.7% shooting from the field. Wayne State's Erin Norling got back to her usual self in the game, recording 23 points and 13 rebounds.

Riley Wheatcraft carried much of the load for the Bears, finishing with 26 points on 9-13 shooting from the floor. Becher had the best game of her young career, putting up a career-high 25 points to go along with eight rebounds and two blocks. Senior guard Danielle Schaub was the only other Bear to finish in double figures, recording 12 points, four assists, and two rebounds.

AUGUSTANA SERIES HISTORY

The Golden Bears have a 13-18 all-time record against the Vikings. The Bears' record in home games against Augie is 8-4. Augustana holds the advantage in recent years as they have won seven of the last 10 against the Bears. Augie won both matchups with CSP last season by an average of nine points.

LAST TIME AGAINST AUGIE

When the teams last met on Feb. 15 last year at the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls, S.D., the Vikings came away with a tight 90-85 victory.

The bank was open for Danielle Schaub as she ended the game just one bucket short of matching the team record for three-point shots made in a game. The junior set a handful of career highs in multiple statistical categories. She scored a career high of 27 points to lead the Golden Bears against the Vikings, with every one of her points coming from the three-point line. Schaub hit nine of 12 from downtown to go 75% from the floor for a new personal record and did not attempt a single shot within the three-point line.

The Golden Bears hit a season-high of 15 three-point shots to be one bucket shy of the all-time single game record for 3FGM. They ended the night on 45.6% shooting from the floor (31-68) and 51.7% from three (15-29), while hitting 8-8 from the stripe in their lowest free-throw attempts of the season.

Riley Wheatcraft and Cassidy Byrd were the Bears' second leading scorers with 13 points each. Wheatcraft hit 3-of-6 from beyond the arc while picking up five rebounds. Byrd shot 60% (3-5) from three and 50% from the floor (4-8) while dishing out two assists and one block.

For the Vikings, Abby Hora matched Schaub's number with 27 points and went 10-17 (58%) from the floor. McKenzie Zilverberg was the second leading scorer with 17 points while going 3-3 from the three.

SCOUTING THE VIKINGS

Augustana boasts a balanced roster with four different players averaging at least 10.0 points and 3.0 rebounds per game.

Izzy Van Veldhuizen anchors the Augustana scoring attack, averaging 17.3 points per game (7th NSIC) to go along with 5.8 rebounds and 2.75 assists.

Aislinn Duffy is the second leading scorer for the Vikings, averaging 14.8 points and 5.8 rebounds per game.

Lauren Sees and Hannah Mitby round out the top of the Vikings' score sheet, averaging 13.8 and 10.8 points per game, respectively.

The Vikings have split with each of their opponents so far this season, winning the first and losing the second against both MSU Moorhead and Minnesota State. This weekend will be the first time Augie plays on the road this season.

The squad is shooting 41.2% from the floor (10th NSIC) and 35.1% from beyond the arc (4th NSIC) while holding their opponents to 36.1% from the floor (2nd NSIC).

KEY STATS

Through the first four games of the season, the Golden Bears rank first in the NSIC in six different key statistical categories. CSP leads the conference in scoring margin (+26.8), field goal percentage (51.9%), defensive field goal percentage (30.6%), 3-point percentage (47.2%), blocked shots per game (6.5), and assists per game (17.0). The Bears also rank second in the NSIC in scoring offense (84.5 ppg), scoring defense (57.8 ppg), and steals per game (10.75).

On the individual side, five Golden Bears rank in the conference top 10 in different statistical categories. Lindsey Becher ranks first in the conference in field goal percentage (68.4%) and blocks per game (3.8). She also ranks second in the NSIC with 26 field goals made and ninth in scoring with 16.5 points per game.

Meghan DuBois ranks first in the NSIC with 5.3 assists per game and sixth in the NSIC with an assist to turnover ratio of 1.8.

Riley Wheatcraft currently sits second in the conference with a field goal percentage of 66.7%. She also ranks seventh in field goals made with 22 and 10th in steals per game with 1.8.

Sidney Wentland is third in the NSIC with 2.5 steals per game while Danielle Schaub sits eighth with an assist to turnover ratio of 1.7.

Amanda Johnson enters her fifth full season after officially being named the program's ninth head basketball coach in April, 2016 following a successful stint as interim head coach in the second half of the 2015-16 season.

One of the top post players in Concordia basketball history, Johnson assumed the interim head coach position during winter break of the 2015-16 season and led the program to a 9-10 record highlighted by a 9-6 finish that included an NSIC Sanford Health Tournament first round victory.

In her first full season in 2016-17, Johnson led the team to a fifth place finish in the NSIC and a third place finish in the South Division as the team compiled a record of 19-10 (15-7 NSIC) on the season.

She's completed her year coaching in the program, spending the first two as a graduate assistant before a promotion to the top assistant position on staff for a year and a half.

Johnson returned to the Golden Bears in 2012-13 after a strong stint as a professional player in Australia. She returned to pursue a master's degree in sport management and initially was tabbed with working with the post players. As a graduate assistant, the Golden Bears captured two NSIC Championships and an NCAA Central Region Championship with a trip to the Elite Eight during her first two years on staff.

Concordia Playing Career

The two-time All-Region performer led the Golden Bears to back-to-back NSIC regular season and tournament championships and was two-time NSIC Player of the Year in the process. Johnson set the school single-season scoring record with 551 points as a junior in 2006-07 as she led the Golden Bears to the NCAA Central Region Championship game and the school's second Sweet 16 run.

She averaged 16.8 points and 8.6 rebounds while shooting 52.4% from the floor and finished as Concordia's seventh all-time leading scorer despite playing three years for the Golden Bears (2005-08).

She had a 30-point, 20-rebound performance in the 2006-07 region title game. Her 726 career rebounds rank second in Concordia's Division II-era (1999-present), just 16 shy of the school record. She also scored 1,426 career points in 94 games, adding 112 steals and 81 blocked shots.

The St. Croix Lutheran High School graduate was a business and marketing major at Concordia as an undergraduate. She began her college career at Division I Winthrop University, playing in 27 games with three starts with a Big South Freshman of the Week award.

Coaching Beginning

Johnson brings prior coaching experience to the Golden Bear huddle, working as an assistant coach at New Life Academy.

Professional Playing Career

After her Concordia playing career came to a close, Johnson pursued professional basketball in Australia, playing for the Ringwood Hawks where she was a 2010 Big V League MVP and helped the Hawks to a Victoria State Championship. She posted averages of 15.6 points and 14.3 rebounds most recently.

She had also worked at Freedom Mortgage in the Twin Cities between Australian seasons.

Amanda is married to Eric Johnson. They currently reside in Hudson, Wis with their son, Jase, and daughter, Skylar.

Assistant Coach notes:

Kristen Lee joined the Concordia women's basketball coaching staff in the summer of 2018. The Dawson, Minnesota native and graduate of St. Catherine University (exercise sports science) in St. Paul will primarily work with guards while assisting in all aspects of the program.

Her college coaching career began as a graduate assistant at SMSU where she earned a master's degree in physical education. She also served as a coach with the Minnesota Fury AAU program. Lee was most recently the top assistant at Northwestern (Iowa), which made a run to the NAIA DII national semifinals.

Madison McKeever enters her first season as a graduate assistant for the Golden Bears in the 2020-21 season. The Erskine, Minnesota native joins the coaching staff after a successful four year playing career at the University of South Dakota.

As a player, McKeever was a part of a Coyotes team that was the first team in Summit League history to go undefeated en route to a Summit League regular season crown and Summit League Tournament championship. In her senior season, she averaged 8.8 points, 3.3 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 1.8 steals per game.
