THE MATHCUP

The Concordia-St. Paul women's basketball team (9-3, 7-3 NSIC) will return home to take on the Winona State Warriors (2-6, 2-5 NSIC) in a pair of conference games this weekend.

LAST TIME OUT

Last weekend, the Golden Bears took on the Upper Iowa Peacocks in a pair of road games at Dorman Gym in Fayette, Iowa. CSP swept the Peacocks in dominating fashion, winning the first game by 14 and the second game by 30.

Both teams struggled early in the first quarter of game one until UIU guard Katie Tornstrom finally broke the 0-0 tie with a jump shot over two minutes into the game. Freshmen forward Lindsey Becher got the Bears on the board with a layup around a minute later. The teams traded jabs for the rest of the first, but it was CSP closing out the quarter with a 12-9 lead over Upper Iowa.

The Bears took control of the game in the second quarter, outscoring the Peacocks 21-5 to take a commanding 33-14 lead into the half. Concordia held the Peacocks to just 2-12 shooting in the quarter while shooting 7-18 themselves.

The Peacocks mounted a slight comeback in the fourth, outscoring the Bears 19-14 on 8-15 shooting (53.3%). However, the deficit proved too much to overcome as the Bears walked away with a 14-point victory to move to 8-3 on the season.

Zgutowicz was the scoring leader for the Golden Bears, tying her career-high with 14 points on 6-13 shooting and adding five rebounds and four steals. Sophomore guard Jadyn Hanson provided a spark off the bench for CSP, putting up 13 points and four assists.

In game two, the Peacocks opened the scoring in the first quarter on a three pointer from Katie Tornstrom. The Bears quickly responded on the other end of the court with a layup from Sydney Zgutowicz. CSP kept their feet on the gas from there, sparking a 12-0 run to take an early double-digit lead. The first quarter closed with Concordia leading 22-10.

The Golden Bear defense was up to the challenge again in the second frame, holding the Peacocks to just 9 points on 3-7 shooting from the field. CSP capitalized on UIU's turnover issues for the second straight game, scoring 17 points off turnovers in the first half alone.

The Concordia offense exploded in the third, scoring 27 points on 9-18 shooting in the quarter. The Bears also played well, holding the Peacocks to 15 points to extend the lead to 28 heading into the fourth.

The fourth quarter was much tighter than the third, but CSP still managed to outscore the Peacocks 15-13 to cap off the 30-point victory.

Zgutowicz finished on top of the score sheet for the Bears once again, notching a career-high 20 points to go along with five rebounds and three steals. Freshman forward Lindsey Becher also had another strong day, putting up 12 points and four steals for CSP. Sarah Kuma gave the Golden Bears a solid performance off the bench with 12 points, three rebounds, and three steals.

WSU SERIES HISTORY

The Golden Bears have a 34-19 all-time record against the Warriors. The Bears' record in home games against UIU is 15-6. CSP has the advantage in recent years, winning the last four and six of the last 10 against WSU.

Following the tip-off, the two teams were back and forth on scoring while mutually unsuccessful on a number of possessions. Danielle Schaub broke the scoring drought on the court after four possessions with neither team able to execute, putting up a three-pointer to take an early 7-5 lead. The Bears held the Warriors to 30.8% shooting from the floor (4-13) while going 50% (8-16) themselves to have the 18-14 lead at the end of the first.

The first bucket in the second quarter didn't come until 5:35 to go with a set of free throws from junior Riley Wheatcraft. After that, Winona State went on a 6-0 run to take a one-point lead over the Bears. The quarter went on to have seven lead changes and despite CSP shooting 18.8% from the field (3-16), they trailed by just one point at the half (26-27).

After their locker room meeting, the Golden Bears came back to the court with a touch for the glass again and shot 71.4% from the floor (10-14) while holding Winona to 40% shooting (6-15). Junior Sydney Schultz scored 11 points in the third after hitting five of three from the floor.

The Warriors committed six of their 19 turnovers in the final quarter of the game and struggled to get past the Golden Bear defense. WSU hit just one of ten from the floor (10%) and scored three of four from the free-throw line for a smug five points in the final ten minutes.

The top scoring duo for the Golden Bears was Riley Wheatcraft and Sydney Schultz as they each ended with 17 points. Wheatcraft ended on 75% shooting from the floor (6-8) and was the top rebounder with six. The junior also put up a career high in blocks with four against the Warriors, along with two assists and two steals. Schultz was 8 for 11 from the field (72.7%) and contributed one assists, two rebounds, and two steals.

SCOUTING THE WARRIORS

The Warriors hover around the middle of the conference in most statistical categories and scoring offense is no exception. Winona State averages 68.0 points per game, good for ninth in the NSIC.

The Warriors are the 14th ranked scoring defense in the conference, giving up 74.8 points per game.

WSU likes to shoot from beyond the arc, hitting 7.1 three pointers per game (sixth NSIC).

Taylor Hustad and Emma Fee anchor the Warriors' scoring attack as each of the seniors average at least 11 points per game on over 50% shooting from the field. Hustad also ranks second in the conference in rebound per game, grabbing an average of 8.9 boards.

Allie Pickrain is the WSU scoring leader off the bench, putting up 9.0 points and 1.0 steals per game.

KEY STATS

Heading into this weekend's matchup, the Golden Bears rank first in the NSIC in three different key statistical categories. CSP leads the conference in defensive field goal percentage (32.5%), blocked shots per game (7.08), and assists per game (15.0). The Bears also rank second in the NSIC in three-point field goal percentage (37.1%).

On the individual side, three Golden Bears rank in the conference top-ten in three different statistical categories. Lindsey Becher ranks second in the NSIC and fifth in the NCAA with 3.33 blocks per game.

Meghan DuBois sits fifth in the NSIC with 3.8 assists per game and eighth in the conference with an assist to turnover ratio of 1.4.

Amanda Johnson enters her fifth full season after officially being named the program's ninth head basketball coach in April, 2016 following a successful stint as interim head coach in the second half of the 2015-16 season.

One of the top post players in Concordia basketball history, Johnson assumed the interim head coach position during winter break of the 2015-16 season and led the program to a 9-10 record highlighted by a 9-6 finish that included an NSIC Sanford Health Tournament first round victory.

In her first full season in 2016-17, Johnson led the team to a fifth place finish in the NSIC and a third place finish in the South Division as the team compiled a record of 19-10 (15-7 NSIC) on the season.

She's completed her year coaching in the program, spending the first two as a graduate assistant before a promotion to the top assistant position on staff for a year and a half.

Johnson returned to the Golden Bears in 2012-13 after a strong stint as a professional player in Australia. She returned to pursue a master's degree in sport management and initially was tabbed with working with the post players. As a graduate assistant, the Golden Bears captured two NSIC Championships and an NCAA Central Region Championship with a trip to the Elite Eight during her first two years on staff.

Concordia Playing Career

The two-time All-Region performer led the Golden Bears to back-to-back NSIC regular season and tournament championships and was two-time NSIC Player of the Year in the process. Johnson set the school single-season scoring record with 551 points as a junior in 2006-07 as she led the Golden Bears to the NCAA Central Region Championship game and the school's second Sweet 16 run.

She averaged 16.8 points and 8.6 rebounds while shooting 52.4% from the floor and finished as Concordia's seventh all-time leading scorer despite playing three years for the Golden Bears (2005-08).

She had a 30-point, 20-rebound performance in the 2006-07 region title game. Her 726 career rebounds rank second in Concordia's Division II-era (1999-present), just 16 shy of the school record. She also scored 1,426 career points in 94 games, adding 112 steals and 81 blocked shots.

The St. Croix Lutheran High School graduate was a business and marketing major at Concordia as an undergraduate. She began her college career at Division I Winthrop University, playing in 27 games with three starts with a Big South Freshman of the Week award.

Coaching Beginning

Johnson brings prior coaching experience to the Golden Bear huddle, working as an assistant coach at New Life Academy.

Professional Playing Career

After her Concordia playing career came to a close, Johnson pursued professional basketball in Australia, playing for the Ringwood Hawks where she was a 2010 Big V League MVP and helped the Hawks to a Victoria State Championship. She posted averages of 15.6 points and 14.3 rebounds most recently.

She had also worked at Freedom Mortgage in the Twin Cities between Australian seasons.

Amanda is married to Eric Johnson. They currently reside in Hudson, Wis with their son, Jase, and daughter, Skylar.

Assistant Coach notes:

Kristen Lee joined the Concordia women's basketball coaching staff in the summer of 2018. The Dawson, Minnesota native and graduate of St. Catherine University (exercise sports science) in St. Paul will primarily work with guards while assisting in all aspects of the program.

Her college coaching career began as a graduate assistant at SMSU where she earned a master's degree in physical education. She also served as a coach with the Minnesota Fury AAU program. Lee was most recently the top assistant at Northwestern (Iowa), which made a run to the NAIA DII national semifinals.

Madison McKeever enters her first season as a graduate assistant for the Golden Bears in the 2020-21 season. The Erskine, Minnesota native joins the coaching staff after a successful four year playing career at the University of South Dakota.

As a player, McKeever helped the Coyotes to an overall record of 110-24 in her four years. She was also a part of a Coyotes team that was the first team in Summit League history to go undefeated en route to a Summit League regular season crown and Summit League Tournament championship. In her senior season, she averaged 8.8 points, 3.3 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 1.8 steals per game.
